Burbank, CA 91505

0730- Registration and Continental Breakfast

0800-1700 Seminar

Human trafficking and child exploitation are serious crimes that are running rampant in our communities. Frightened and reluctant victims make it very difficult to identify the crime; and prosecution even more difficult. This training brings together instructors who are the experts at identification and prosecution as well as victim welfare and services. The training is highly recommended for first responders, detectives and supervisors. It is also recommended for anyone involved in child protection or immigrant welfare.

Our instructors are all recognized experts in their fields.

The instructors are:

- * LA County District Attorney's Office- Jane Creighton, Deputy DA, Sex Crimes Division
- * FBI Special Agent - Lindsay Eberhard-Cook, Child Exploitation Section
- * FBI Special Agent - Ron Schloegel, Child Exploitation Section
- * Long Beach Police Department - Sergeant Eric Hooker, Vice Division
- * The Coalition to Abolish Slavery and Trafficking (CAST) - Lisa Hammond, Director of Empowerment Programs; Renee Marshall, and Stephanie Richard.
